

Outsourcing payroll administration

Outsourcing payroll administration

Do it yourself or outsource it? Both are possible for your payroll administration. Will you do it yourself? Then it's nice to have certainty if someone falls ill. Will you choose outsourcing? Then you don't have to worry about continuity. Opt for continuity assurance or complete care by Salure

Will you choose to outsource your payroll administration or do you want to explore the advantages of outsourcing? Salure offers you quality, continuity and excellent service. You determine the scope of the service; from just checking the payroll processing to outsourcing the entire payroll administration.

The three main advantages of outsourcing to Salure:

- Continuity assurance
The continuity of the process is guaranteed;
- Time saving
You create time by having the secondary processes taken care of;
- Cost benefits
Economies of scale offer you cost benefits.

Salure opts for intensive communication and a transparent working method. This way, we want to give you the feeling of being an extension of your organisation. Your company gets what it deserves: professional attention and excellent payroll administration.

Experience the power of a team

Salure guarantees the continuity of your payroll administration because our experts work as a team. By outsourcing your payroll administration to Salure, you will have access to a so-called client team of payroll administrators.

Three advantages of a Salure client team:

- Knowledge & Skills
Combination of experience and expertise;
- Continuity guaranteed
Never be dependent on one person again;
- Always accessible
The client team is always available for questions.

“Salure unburdens with tailored payroll administration.”

Payroll Administration x Smart Software = Salure
This handy formula is something we didn't want to keep from you. The combination of Salure's payroll experts on the one hand, and solid software on the other, is the ultimate formula for efficient and high-quality payroll administration. Salure's professionals have thorough experience, the right training and up-to-date knowledge of laws and regulations.

Service is the Keyword

Many organisations have already preceded you in outsourcing your payroll administration to Salure. As a result, the quality of payroll processing has greatly improved in all cases and management costs have been reduced. Do you want your payroll administration to run smoothly, fully and on time? Let Salure's professionals unburden you.

“Choosing Salure means choosing smooth payroll administration”

Does outsourcing your payroll administration to Salure sound good to you? Would you like to know more about the possibilities to guarantee the continuity of your payroll administration? Salure is happy to provide you with information that is fully tailored to your organisation. Please contact Jaco van Hengel.

T 0182-543643
E info@salure.nl
I www.salure.nl